WAR NEWS IN BRIEF.

The third Zeppelin raid over England since the early part of last week occurred last night. It resulted in the killing of five persons and wounding of forty by bombs dropped by the Germans. It is said the attack was made on the east coast.

The British Admiralty announced that a British aviator destroyed Zeppelin over Belgium.

Heavy fighting is again in progress at various points along the western front. The French War Office to-day announced the capture of two lines of German trenches over a front of 1,200 yards near Hebuterne, and the repulse of German attacks north of the Aisne.

The German statement declared that the French attack at Hebuterne was unsuccessful, and that the French had been beaten back also in an advance near Soissons, with the exception of one point at which they penetrated the outer German works.

In Galicia the victorious advance of the Austro-German forces continues. Telegrams from Vienna say that Lemberg, held by the Russians since the early part of the war, may be retaken at any moment by the BERLIN, via wireless to London, June 7 .- French troops have resorted to the use of "liquid fire," according to an official statement from the War Office this afternoon.

The German trenches near Baugols were sprayed with the flery fluid. The attack was unexpected and many soldiers in the advanced works were burned alive before they to follow up this attack by rushing the trenches, but were beaten off by a rain of shrapnel and machine gun bullets.

The War Office admitted this after noon that the French penetrated the German advanced trenches northwest of Solssons. Elsewhere all French attacks were repulsed. The enemy launched particularly vigorous assaults against the German positions on the south slope of the Lorette Hills and southeast of Buterne.

Following is the text of to-day's War Office report:

"The French renewed their attacks on the southern slope of Lorette Hills during the afternoon and evening of yesterday. Their attacks broke down completely under our fire. The Germans have counter-attacked with great fury on the north side of the "Labyrinth." The official communique this afternoon said that all the attacks have been repulsed, the Germans leaving many dead and wounded before the French positions. The enemy has brought up rein forcements and has begun a deter mined attempt to recapture the ruins of the Souchez sugar mill. During the night the Germans attempted to shell French troops out of the refinery. French guns replied with great energy and succeeded in silencing the enemy batteries, but a succession of infantry assaults immediately followed. Thus far all these assaults have been repulsed.

The Germans are also shelling the "Red Cabaret," a roadside inn captured by the French on Friday, and are spraying shrapnel at the French trenches near Neuville. In the region of Hebuterne, the French have taken a number of prisoners and mitrailleuses. Following is the text of the War Office report:

"The sector to the north of Arras last night was marked by an engagement of artillery of extreme severity, particularly in the vicinity of Loretto, of Ablain, of the 'Cabaret Rouge, near Souther, of the Labyrinth, and of Ecurie. "The enemy in this same delivered two counter-attacks, each of which failed completely. One was against the sugar refinery of Souches,
